2. South Korea will again be invaded from the North probably within the next two months. The USSR expects that this move, coupled with continuing action in Indochina, will inevitably result in the eventual use of atomic bombs on the Chinese mainland by the US. When this happens, all of Asia will be completely and finally alienated from the US. The greater the damage to Chinese life and property, the more the USSR will be pleased. They USSR will welcome an opportunity to "cut China down to size."
